General Information

Lost Or Damaged Goods

Our products are delivered in three ways:

- 1) Our driver delivers to your place of business within our delivery service area;
- 2) FedEx, UPS or a freight company delivers to your place of business; or
- 3) FedEx, UPS or a freight company delivers to your customer's residence or place of business.

If product is being shipped directly to your customer, you must inform them of the contents of this section. All of our products are inspected and tested before they leave the factory and, while we strive to package them securely, items are sometimes lost and/or damaged in shipment.

There are two types of loss or damage:

- 1) Apparent Damage: Whenever possible inspect the outer condition of all cartons before signing for the shipment. When there is apparent damage (broken, torn, or crushed cartons) insist that the driver make a notation on the Delivery Receipt before you sign. Strive to open all of the cartons within 48 hours; if product is missing or damaged save all packaging materials for inspection, and report any lost or damaged product to FedEx, UPS or the freight company and to our Customer Service Rep.
- 2) Concealed Damage: When there is no apparent damage to the packaging material, product contained in the cartons may still be damaged. All cartons should be opened within 48 hours and the contents thoroughly inspected. As above, if product is missing or damaged, save the packaging material, and report the lost or damaged product to FedEx, UPS or the freight company and to our Customer Service Rep.

Regardless of who caused the loss or damage we understand this is a difficult time for you and your customer and we will strive to provide 24-hour turn around on all in stock items, a second invoice will be issued for this product. In exchange it is only fair that you promptly file a claim with FedEx, UPS or the freight company. This is appropriate because in the eyes of the freight company, you are the party that has suffered the loss and it is your responsibility to file the claim. We will assist you in every way possible but you should not expect us to absorb the expense of replacing lost or damaged product when FedEx, UPS or a freight company is at fault. Call FedEx, UPS or the freight company to report the situation and call our Accounting Department with the claim number so we can extend the terms of your first invoice an additional 30 to 60 days while the claim is being processed.

Cleaning & Repair Policy

Due to health concerns and employee safety when a blind is sent in for us to repair for any reason, we have the right at our discretion, to charge for cleaning of that blind.

All claims on custom orders must be resolved within 30 days of issue being presented. In the case of extenuating circumstances, the 30 day deadline can be extended if approved by management at A&I Manufacturing in writing. If it is necessary to return the product to our factory, the Customer Service Representative will issue a Return Authorization Number. If the return is due to an ordering error, a credit may or may not be offered depending on the size and type of the product.
